The local Japanese Consular Police have received the following information regarding a Chinese named Tung Ya Non (唐亜農) from the Kobe Police, Japan,:-

Tung Ya Non, aged 28, native of Kwangan Hsien(廣安縣), Szechuen, arrived in Kobe from Shanghai on board the s.s. "Nagasaki Maru" on March 9, 1937, but the Police Authorities prohibited his entry into Japan and sent him back to Shanghai aboard the s.s. "Rokko Maru", which sailed from Kobe on March 11.

In July, 1929, Tung first arrived in Japan from China with a view to receiving further education in Tokyo and in April, 1930, he was admitted to the Waseda University. In September, the same year, he was arrested by the Tokyo Metropolitan Police on a charge of being a member of the Anti-Imprialists League. Tung was released after three monthes detention. Towards the end of 1931 he returned to Kwangan Hsien, where he taught in a middle school until he left for Japan in 1937.
